

The Silent Retreat 2007

Why would you want to attend the Silent Retreat?

As Christians, we may sometimes feel like we want more from our relationship with God. We can feel like we are stuck and cannot hear His voice. How often do we spend even 20 minutes a day meditating on God or Scripture? And yet God created us to have an intimate relationship with Him. At the Silent Retreat you have time to reflect on your relationship with your heavenly Father.

When you leave your busy world and go to a Silent Retreat, you are giving yourself permission to take time to listen for His voice. Most of the Silent Retreat weekend is you being quiet and spending time with God and the Lord Jesus in meditative prayer, reading, journaling, or maybe even sleeping. God does sometimes minister to us while we are sleeping. Most likely you will learn something about yourself that you were not aware of. As you discipline yourself to pray, and listen, you will learn to discern the voice of God.
